MEMBERSHIP Rates from 1 May 2010

Join Edinburgh Sculpture Workshop and enjoy the many benefits of membership.

There are four categories of membership available to suit different requirements, full details are overleaf.

Edinburgh Sculpture Workshop is an open access facility providing space and specialist equipment for artists. Anyone can book to come and produce work as a member or non member but, for regular or frequent users, annual membership may be more cost effective.

Edinburgh Sculpture Workshop's programme is artist-led and members are encouraged to propose activities, projects and contribute to strategy and planning.

FACILITIES

A range of WORKING SPACES and equipment is available to suit different types of projects and research activities (see separate leaflet for details of Working Spaces and Session Rates).

A fully qualified member of the Technical Team is on duty during opening hours, Monday to Saturday 9.30am-5pm.

First time users: an equipment induction, health & safety briefing and signed acceptance of the Workshop User Regulations are required before starting work, to be arranged with the Workshop Manager.

TECHNICAL TEAM

The fully qualified technical team can help with all your technical requirements (Inductions should be arranged with Workshop Manager, Sam Stead or Workshop Technician, Kate Ive).

Workshop Manager: Sam Stead

Workshop Technicians: Kate Ive

Additional Technicians: Christine Hilditch, Neville Rae

TO APPLY

Complete and return the attached application form, enclosing payment if paying by cheque, and proof of eligibility if required: applications can be accepted by post or e-mail.

Payment methods: by card over the phone (0131 551 4490); by cheque (payable to Edinburgh Sculpture Workshop) through the post; by cash in person at ESW.
